

Dear Hiring manager,

I am writing to endorse Yen-Chun Lin for consideration in the Global Talent Visa application process. As a senior executive member of Hua Rong Prosperity, a Business Network International group in Taiwan. I had the privilege of collaborating with Yen during a technology business event.

Yen played a pivotal role in the planning and execution of our association's activities, serving as both an event planner and speaker. Through her clear and engaging presentations, she adeptly elucidated gaming processes, fostering a deeper understanding among our members. Yen's contributions not only enhanced the camaraderie within our business association but also expanded our collective knowledge of the gaming industry.

I am grateful for the positive impact Yen has had on our business association, and I am pleased to offer my endorsement for her outstanding contributions. I wholeheartedly recommend her as a candidate for the Global Talent Visa, confident that her dynamic and creative approach will undoubtedly make significant contributions to the technology industry in the United Kingdom.

Sincerely,

About

With experience in product sales and exhibition instruction, I possess artistic editing skills and excel in managing social media, crafting advertising copy, and graphic image editing. During my university years, I organized and planned various inter-departmental and inter-school events. I enjoy interpersonal communication, prioritize teamwork over individual endeavors, and believe that the value of business collaboration in entrepreneurship is greater than the sum of its parts.
